

Cab Ridge, Tex, May 8th,

Dear John,

Just a note to explain my long silence & to give you my new home address. Decatur We've moved to: 30 Decatur Street Kensington, Maryland.

Life is a hot pace at the moment. I've been in Washington about 8 days the last month, & did do one run only to lose it because the moist chamber got too wet while the microcolonies were growing. First such case for several years & might be related to Washington's famed humidity.

Are you going to the SDB meetings in Baltimore?
I hope so. I'll try to have the technique sheets written so that we can get them off to Sherman shortly.
Again with apologies for the long period of inactivity & hoping to see you next week.

Sincerely

W. Max
